Session Six: Meeting Future Self in

Simultaneous Now

*July 4, 2020 * KH @ SH*

Good morning friends!

This is Sar'h and Koot Hoomi and we are here on the morning of July 4th, linear year 2020.

So, I'm going to tell my story as Sar'h and then I'm going to have Koot Hoomi come in. We start to change this where it becomes One Voice: your voice, my voice, Koot Hoomi's voice all in a sovereign collective One Voice.

And I'll come up with a name for that. But right now, we're just kind of weaving everything together.

This is channel number six in the "Living in the Garden of New Life" series, and we kind of went way for out and now, we're going to come a little bit back in to talk about various facets of "Living in the Garden of New Life".

Today's is going to be Linearity!

So, when I woke up on Friday morning, today is Saturday, I had three or four one-on-one calls with Patrons, and before I started the calls I heard Koot Hoomi say: "Let's try something different."

So, I realized that we had come up with an experience. Rather than to talk about: "Here's where I'm going through and ..." – usually it all comes down to one thing – what people are going through! It's a: "...Am I worthy of allowing This?" Then: "Is this real?"

There are various stories that kind of come up about "worthiness". But it kind of gets to that and worthiness it the I Am Forgiveness.

But everybody here pretty much knows how the dragon of forgiveness – you know, sometimes it's talked about as clarity, but really, truly it's the I Am Forgiveness and we'll talk about that in the Satsang for a public audience.

"But let's go beyond that," that's what Koot Hoomi said. Sometimes you're not going to figure something out until you go beyond it.

So, we experimented with these beautiful beings, and it really clicked. It really got the Aha-moment. And those moments don't just occur and then dissolve. It shifts something in a – for a lack of a better word – permanent way.

In other words: once you see something you cannot unsee it. Like back in the awakening phase, once you're awoken and realize: "hey, this world is not what I think it is" you can't go back to believing the illusion is real and a fixed reality.

So, that's what we're doing today and we're going to focus on stretching the perception of time. As Lauren, here in my last life, I just moved beyond a duality.

You know, there was linearity to me, which is part of this relative reality, also called a real illusion, or combined Realusion, which is the Crimson Circle term. I like relative reality.

So, there was the linearity of the relative reality – and Tom, we talked about this with you on the Banyan Tree call as well and there was the – for me, there was the experience (clearing her voice) – excuse me, there was the experience of going beyond time and space.

So, I realized that I was kind of operating in another duality: time and no-time.

And over the last month, time has become something that is fluid and creative and actually Tom made me realize this when he was on the Banyan Tree call – time is a sense. You know when I was talking about sensuality... time is a sense and it's creative.

So, Koot Hoomi came up with an experience and that we're going to bring to you today.

So, take a deep breath, and I want to thank you everybody for connecting, I felt you guys so much last night and this morning and in this channel and we're really making the shift from Koot Hoomi and myself being the gatherer of information and then presenting to you to all of you being the gatherer of informative experience and then sharing it in a collective space that creates potentials, possibilities, passage ways for other people choosing consciousness over automation for eons to come.

Which is why we're going to put it into a book, so it lives on.

So, you guys are making the shift and we're adapting to you.

All right, deep breath ...

Namasteeee, friends, it is Koot Hoomi. I have been so active with each and everyone of you, I'm so honored. This is very different than any experience I've ever had either in my last life or working with Madame Blavatsky and Morya and the Theosophical society or working with Crimson Circle or any of the channelers that I've worked with and continue to work with ... this is very, very different.

I want to ask you to sense into the HOW it's different.

(pause)

I'll give you a hint: it's different because whether you know it or not – and I think many of you know it – you're already sitting in your realization. There is nothing to do, there is nothing to worry about, there is not a class to take unless you do it for the experience and the joy of it, there is no way you can turn back, there is no way you can do it wrong.

I think many of you listened to the channel from Crimson Circle called: "I Am Enlightened", where I told my story of when I realized I was in my Self Realization. So many doubts came up. "Am I realized? Have I done it yet? Did I do it correctly?" And then one day I woke up, and I said: "YES, I Am, I-AM-THAT-I-AM, I Am Enlightened."

Now I know we don't use that word any more, but at that time that's what the best word was.

Now, in this space we're going beyond realized, not realized, has my biology integrated or not, am I in New Life or not ... the or/not piece is a duality. There is no either/or, there is no check-box, there is a deep, non-dual knowingness.

So, for the experience, Sar'h is telling me to get it going (laughing) - for the experience.

All right, imagine you're sitting at a table, maybe a table in the kitchen and you have a cup of coffee, a cup of tea, may be a glass of wine, your beverage of choice.

And you're sitting at this table and we are in linear year 2023. That sounds so futuristic, 2023, but it is just three years from now. So, tap in, through simple awareness.

You don't need to do anything to get there, when we asked you guys to meet us at 4 a.m. some of you wanted to convert the time, you kind of wanted to know how to get there ... (pause) when you're going to meet somebody, when you're going to meet your master friends, when you're going to meet the version of You in 2023, you simply connect to "I am here." It's so simple.

I am here!

I don't need to know what time zone it's in, I don't need to make any complicated steps, I don't need to sit on my meditation cushion or make sure I have an empty stomach ... I AM HERE!

My friend Adamus, his version is: the master enters the temple with no effort.

You choose and allow where you're going to place your awareness. For so long you've been choosing and allowing realization. So singular in some ways, right? Now, we're going to open to ALL.

So, there is a version of You. When I was telling Sar'h about this I said: "go to Lauren Hutton 2023. We're going to connect to Lauren 2023." So, place your name in there: connect to Sue 2023, Ali 2023... So, your Self in 2023 is sitting at the table enjoying, well in Lauren's case, a nice cup of hot strong coffee.

She's sitting at the table and she goes: "what's different? How is Lauren 2023 different then Lauren in 2020?" Just three years. So, we'll go through her experience and then I will walk with you through yours. And just to provide an example.

(pause)

So, when Lauren felt into the version of her embodied Self in 2023 she realized, one of the main thing that was different was the mind or the brain. It had gone through leaps and bounds to catch up with her consciousness embodied on Earth. And by embodied we don't mean all the consciousness comes into the physical body, but rather the physical body integrates into the Free Energy Body.

So, her brain works different, there's no noise which is something that had happened a while ago. There's no noise. But there is also no fog.

(pause)

She started to feel into her finger tips, every cell in her body infused with New Energy. Truly part of the sensual experience of being an embodied being on Earth a defining characteristic of New Life - the body as energy and consciousness combined.

So, go to your table in 2023 and then allow the 2023 version of yourself to meet who you are right now on this day July 4th, 2020.

Allow them to sit at the table together, there is no other people at the table, not right now. There's Kim 2023 and there's Kim 2020 (for example).

What does this version of yourself want to show who you are now?

Now you may get some sensations, you may get some words, if you don't you can always ask questions. Begin the inquiry:

Does the 2023 version of yourself worry about money?

Does the 2023 version of yourself have an integrated biology?

Do they feel pain?

Do they doubt their realization?

So, we don't need to learn anything from the Future Self. The Future Self is not going to teach us anything. The Future Self exists in the Simultaneous Now.

I-Am-Here in 2020 AND I-Am-Here in 2023.

So, we're also letting go of past, present and future.

Really opening up and allowing our mind to come along. Allow your mind to come along on this.

As your body of consciousness is being infused with New Energy, and New Energy is simply the awareness, the understanding that energy and consciousness were never separate. You never had to go out and seek energy outside yourself. That was an illusion.

When you realize that energy and consciousness are ONE, which is what comes from understanding there is only ONE Energy and it's all mine, the brain will be able to come along. You won't have to say: "turn it off, shut it down, right?"

The brain will be able to understand, right? It will catch up with your knowingness that this is one Simultaneous Now and you exist in so many realities without being separate or fragmented.

So, take a deep breath ... (breathing) ...

You bring your 2023 version of your, of your I-AM-THAT-I-AM in physical form, in the physical expression and the who-you-are-now to the same table. There's nothing to learn and there is nothing to merge here, because you're not separate, so we don't need to combine the two, we don't even need to have a human conversation, but a communing.

What's it like when I'm already in New Life? I created this New Life and now I am discovering how I got there. And that's beautiful and wonderful and there's no hurry.

Now let's tap into the biology of this New Life version of Self.

(pause)

Kim in 2023: is her biology integrated? Does she feel pain? Allow the 2023 version of yourself to show you what it was like to integrate the biology.

Many of you – and we’re going to brake this down in a channel to come – many of you still hold onto the belief that the biology is going to “evolve” into the Free Energy vessel, that the body will steadily improve day by day, which is what evolution is: improvement day by day until it hits the Free Energy vessel.

However, it’s more of a reverse and there is a dis-continuity, a leap that occurs when the biology integrates into the Free Energy vessel.

(pause)

The only thing required is trust and allowing.

And letting go of the belief system that biological integration is an evolutionary process.

It may feel like a death. Integration often feels like a death but it’s not.

Things may fall apart before they come together. Don’t take my word for it. Allow your Future Self sitting here at the table with you to show you through sensation alone how you got there.

There won’t be any steps, they won’t tell you what to eat or what to do. It’s not about any of that stuff. You know this. It’s not about getting anywhere because you’re already here.

(pause)

All that your Future Self says: “you know what happen? One day I just stopped trying. You’re not kind of trying but ... I let go of all trying and I figured out what allowing truly was.”

Now some of you may be letting the mind fantasy go: where do I live? Whom am I with? Where on the globe do I live?

Your Future Self is not going to show you any of that. It’s really, truly about what’s going on within You. So, if you find yourself being pulled out into fantasy land, bring it back to the I-Am-Here.

So, last night in our meeting – so well attended, such enthusiasm, thank you – we all sat at a big round table, you in New Life met with everybody else here in New Life.

We all sat around the table and we shared what we were creating. We had a few laughs, some of you brought some wine, some of you came with your stories about how funny everything is.

“Oh, I thought I was suffering, but really I was playing this great game with myself, so I could have the experience of remembering my true nature.”

One of the things that happens in New Life is that you’re always, always, always, always in a simultaneously multiple Now Moment.

Let me break that down.

You’ll find yourself in many realities, relative realities. It may be a different linear year and maybe on one of the New Earths. Here, in this sovereign collective - I almost called it a group and Sar’h corrected me – here in this sovereign collective we exist also on Theos, the New Earth that is dedicated to realized beings only.

So, you’re in multiple realities, likely a dozen, twelve or more. They may be realities from another lifetime which runs simultaneous now, which we talked about in the “Encore of New Life” channel, all those lifetimes are happening simultaneously. That stops being something that you say mentally, and the brain catches up and you feel it.

So, in the simultaneously multiple Now we give you a great example that will expand out. 2023 Self exists, has a whole life, a New Life ... (pause) ... you are amazing beings! And I came here to show you your grandness. I came here to fill in for Morya and to be a friend to each of you.

You’ve asked me, many of you, what’s the way to further?

The way to further is to go beyond seeking your realization in one singular relative reality. For example: Lauren choosing realization in this relative reality of Earth, Classic Earth.

When you expand out and go beyond and you begin to experience yourself in the simultaneously multiple Now...Realization in this relative reality becomes one tiny, tiny little piece of who you are. And it takes care of itself.

So, here in the sovereign collective we’re going to open the door for going way beyond the grain of sand. Right, the grain of sand is Lauren choosing realization. New Life is the whole beach.

Realization on Classic Earth is one tiny grain in the sand. New Life is the whole beach.

(pause)

There's a big quantum leap that occurs when you realize all the grains of sand they are the senses, and a sense can be a reality. They are the senses, each grain of sand is another sense, each grain of sand is another reality, each grain of sand is an integrated facet of yourself.

The quantum leap that occurs – and what we're doing here on Classic Earth is making a bridge for the human, your humanity on Classic Earth, to experience its grandness encompassing that relative reality.

Before we had to leave that relative reality to experience our grandness, right? So, we're going to experience every grain of sand on the beach underneath our bare feet while walking Classic Earth.

(pause)

Take a deep breath – things have taken a turn here in the sovereign collective. You're already participants in the materials and now, we're going to bring awareness to your contributions to the sovereign collective.

You show up under the Banyan Tree and you bring your creative intelligence with you. We're all wisdomed up, we got so much wisdom from all the lifetimes and in-between, we don't need anymore wisdom.

We can access it any time we want, but the creative intelligence of the I-AM-THAT-I-AM – understanding energy and consciousness and how they respond to one another and, ultimately, discovering that they are one and the same.

So, as you come visit the Banyan Tree you bring something unique with you: your consciousness.

In one of the Banyan Tree calls this week one of the questions that we asked, I asked as Koot Hoomi, was: "what makes you unique?"

Someone had said to Lauren: "We're all doing this realization thing differently." And she kind of laughed: "True, however the things you think make you unique are all human attributes."

"Well, I worked during my realization," or

"I quit my job", or

“I got a divorce”, or

“I was able to stay married”

Or, “I did ancestral freedom first and then released my angelic family or vice versa” ...

All of these things as Sar’h pointed out in her Banyan Tree call are human characteristics. So, we’re asking you to feel into what makes your consciousness inimitable? Cannot be copied. This is about sovereignty. Your consciousness is unique to you, it IS you! You are a sovereign being. One I-Am is not the same as another I-Am . We’re not all the same. In our true nature we are unique! We are sovereign! We are NOT all one. I AM ONE and YOU ARE ONE.

So, when you come to the Banyan Tree, when you come to the Patreon page just to read a post or look at the comments which are great by the way, bring your inimitable consciousness with you. Start to feel into what makes you unique as a consciousness. There won’t be any human details in that.

(pause)

Sar’h says you’re asking for examples. Okay!

How an embodied being creates will be different from one to the next.

Sar’h is telling me she has a friend who uses observation, deep, deep, deep observation to create.

Your goodness, your uniqueness may be your compassion for Earth. Deep compassion without getting stuck in it.

It maybe a sensation. It will be a sensation, and you maybe won’t want to put a word to it.

(pause)

So, to recap, what we’re doing today is - super organized Koot Hoomi here -

- 1) One - you go from participant to contributor in the sovereign collective.
- 2) Experience your Future Self in the Simultaneous Now.
- 3) Ask yourself: what’s my goodness? What makes me unique as a consciousness and then allow the sensation. How is my consciousness interacting in all of these simultaneous multiple realities? This is where your passion will kick in. Those of you who say: “I have no passion left in life”, your human has no passion left in life. Your consciousness is full of it.

That’s enough for today. Thank you friends!

Naaaamaaaastéeee.
